Riello UPS awarded Investors in People Status

Power Protection Company demonstrates its commitment to business success through its employees

Riello UPS Ltd, the UK subsidiary of Europe's leading manufacturer of uninterruptible power supplies (UPS) and standby power systems, is pleased to announce that it has been awarded the Investors in People status.

Investors in People is a nationally recognized quality standard for improving an organisation's performance through the development of its people. By earning the standard, Riello UPS Ltd is demonstrating its commitment to continuous business improvement through its employees.

"One of Riello's greatest assets has always been our staff. We are a thriving, successful company because of their hard work," said Robin Koffler, General Manager of Riello UPS Ltd.

Staff satisfaction and motivation are critical elements to the Riello UPS company ethos - which in turn creates a highly positive attitude towards quality of service for customers. As a result, power protection and uninterruptible power supplies from Riello UPS can be found in a wide-range of industry sectors (IT, industrial, banking, business, government etc) across the globe.

"By earning this status, we are not only confirming our commitment to our staff and recognizing their important contributions to the business; but we're also demonstrating our commitment to our clients by offering them the best services from the best trained people." commented Mr Koffler.

The UK's leading people management standard, Investors in People, provides a framework that helps thousands of organisations of all sizes and sectors to improve their business performance. The framework is focused on identifying each organisation's priorities and working towards achieving the company goals through staff development.

One of Riello UPS' goals is to make the company the most environmentally friendly power protection company in Europe. In addition to being the first UPS manufacturer to rate its products for energy efficiency, Riello UPS recently launched an on-line Energy Savings Calculator to help customers quickly see the range of savings that can be made by using uninterruptible power supplies from Riello - comparing the results against an average competitor model and the benchmarks set out by the European CoC (Code of Conduct) for UPS efficiency. The energy savings calculator can be found on the Riello UPS home page at www.riello-ups.co.uk and further information about Investors in People can be found at www.investorsinpeople.co.uk
